Parental Questionnaire's February 2016

We can all be very proud of our school and children and it is lovely to get some positive feedback from the questionnaire from parents, comments about the school included:

What Saint John Bosco Catholic Primary School does well:

"Saint JohnBosco Catholic Primary School is a happy, caring and welcoming environment for children to thrive academically and socially. We have had children for 3 years now and we are absolutely delighted with the care, consideration and education they have received."

"A great community feel - fantastic teachers!"

"The teachers are excellent at teaching , respect for all people and different faiths!"

"A wonderful Catholic Primary School !"

"Mass and assemblies are very special occasions !"

"Other than the fantastic attitude of all the staff, I think the way that continues Saint JohnBosco Catholic Primary to educate and stimulate all the pupils, whilst still maintaining their enthusiasm and dealing with an ever-changing curriculum is great! It is gratifying to see how individual children are allowed to flourish in areas they excel at, yet still achieve a superb foundation of skills and education."

"Saint JohnBosco Catholic Primary - my children are happy there and all doing well."

"The school excels in all aspects. The staff work so hard to provide a superb culture for learning and striving to succeed. The teaching is excellent and the staff are so caring and enthusiastic."

"I believe you teach the children to be well-mannered and look after each other, also to respect people. I also like your approach to teaching the children in class. It is fun and they love coming to school."

"A wonderful school producing children with excellent life and social skills as well as a strong education - strong teaching team, good values through all years, excellent events."

"Saint JohnBosco Catholic Primary School has a lovely friendly atmosphere."

"You create and foster a fantastic feeling of family; Celebrate the wonder and fun of learning; Seek to educate our children in the broadest sense, not just reading, writing and maths. A huge thank you to all members of staff, both teachers and support, for their amazing dedication and the care which they give day after day to our children."

"They make every child and every parent/carer feel valued by creating a strong community and values that will help the children as they grow into young adults. Each child is taught at a pace which aims to build confidence and challenge."

"Very high standards in education, behaviour, communication with parents and reputation."

"The school provides a happy environment where children thrive, respect the teachers and their peers. The teachers are positive and enthusiastic and are able to bring out the best in the children."

"Treat children as individuals, teachers know them well and the school has a nurturing yet professional feel."

"You give the children confidence and a feeling of belonging to a fantastic school."

"Lovely warm caring atmosphere where everyone feels valued."

"Good communication with parent, great activities and events. Very approachable and caring staff."

"The leadership and teaching team enable the children's experience at school to be an enjoyable one, whilst at the same time encouraging every child to achieve the best of their abilities."

"You inspire great personal values in the kids."

"Saint JohnBosco Catholic Primary is a lovely friendly welcoming school for both the children and parents,"

"Good range of extra-curricular activities. Very well behaved children - noticeable when parents/visitors come into school. Some great ideas used in the classroom and lots of ways to inspire the children. Excellent introduction for children to school with great reception teacher and TAs and a really good space for them."

"You can see the passion, the motivation and effort. I feel the school creates a thirst for learning. You create a positive 'can do' attitude and make children feel valued - communicate with home, nurture the children, well-planned lessons, care about the children, teachers are excellent role models, create a family atmosphere, support the child, believe in all children."

"Achieving a safe, cohesive cohort throughout the whole school, from Reception through to Year 6. Saint JohnBosco Catholic Primary children always appear happy going to and coming out of school. We are extremely happy with our daughter's education at the School. It feels a very welcoming school without barriers between staff and parents."

"Everything from behaviour to high level results, encouragement and praise, methods of how to deal with things, school events, activities, trips, opportunities...We feel extremely lucky that our child has a place at Saint JohnBosco Catholic Primary . It is such a fantastic school."

"Excellent help with the transition to Secondary School and growing up generally. Fantastic team and events. Assemblies and productions - teachers have done an amazing job with the production.... A very happy Year 6 student who is sad to be leaving this wonderful school but, thanks to the teachers, is ready for the new adventures ahead!"
