

Personal, Social, Emotional Development

- To talk about the feelings of the characters.
- Talking about what we should do if are upset.
- To play group games with rules.
- Listening to each others ideas

Communication and Language

- To retell the story of Handas surprise and Jack and the beanstalk.
- To continue to use complex sentences to explain why things happened in each of the stories.
- Role playing of stories using talk as a narrative.
- Following stories without pictures or props.

Mathematics

- Addition/Subtraction maths stories using number lines.
- Naming and describing 3D solid shapes
- Number recognition and ordering 1-20
- Positional language
- Time
- Money
- Counting objects in groups of 2's, 5's and 10's
- Problem solving—halving, sharing and doubling

Creative Development

- Painting pictures from the stories
- Junk construction -Explore materials, tools and techniques.
- Role playing parts from each story
- Large construction role play
- Beach role play
- Pirate play
- Fruit tasting—describing textures
- Decorate an African necklace

Physical Development

- Investigating the different ways our bodies can move.
- Letter formation and handwriting practise
- Dough disco
- Developing large movements using adventure playground.
- Hopping and skipping to music
- Team games
- Racing games
- Learning how to stay safe in the sun

Understanding of the World

- Planting seeds
- Looking after the garden
- How to care for minibeasts
- Minibeast hunt
- Observing changes to environment going from spring to summer.
- Talking about the times we have spent at the beach.
- Comparing a seaside town to West Bromwich.
- Using technology for a purpose
- Floating and sinking
- Talk about the role of gardeners, dust bin men, litter pickers, RSPCA, police, firemen
- Investigating materials

Literacy

- RWI phonics
- Beach hut writing
- Writing about the changes that have happened to plants.
- Writing about how we should stay safe at the beach.
- Retelling of Jack and the beanstalk
- Retelling of Handas Surprise
- Outdoor chalk board
- Independent sentence writing
- Reading and writing tricky words